

21 August 2022

BOMB ALLEY SHELLHOLE HOSTS THE 9TH ANNUAL WAR COMMEMORATION SERVICE AT THE BELLVILLE CENOTAPH

Bomb Alley Shellhole, in co-operation with the Bellville Sub Council of the City of Cape Town, once again hosted its annual War Commemoration Service at the Bellville Civic Centre, where a magnificent cenotaph proudly stands on which are listed the names of all those from Cape Town's Northern Suburbs who fell during the two World Wars and also of those of the South African Bush War. There are two more War Memorials in the Northern Suburbs namely Goodwood and Parow War Memorials.

Bellville Cenotaph in front of the Bellville Civic Centre.

Bellville Cenotaph under the Clock Tower

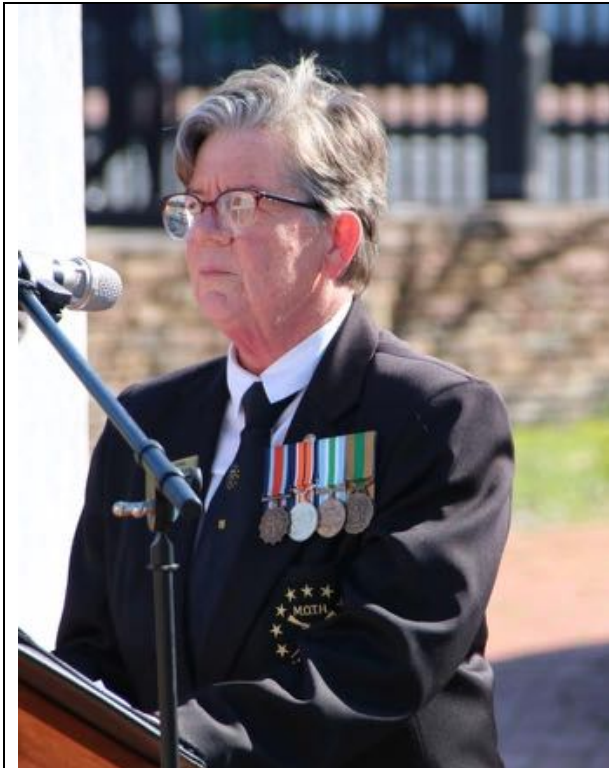

The Parow War Memorial at the Parow Civic Centre:

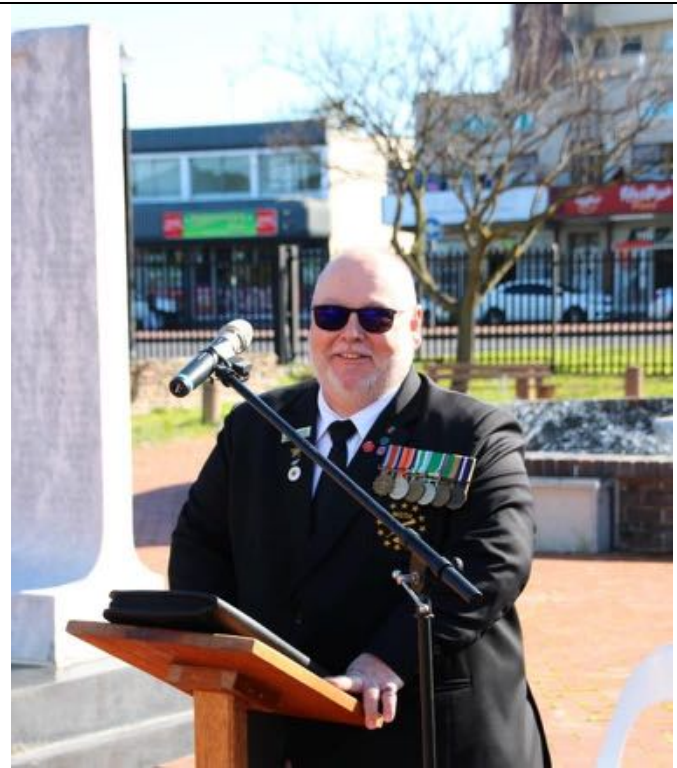

The Goodwood War Memorial at the Goodwood Civic Centre:

The Ward Sub-Council was represented by Clr Clive Justus, Old Bill Gail Jordaan and members of Bomb Alley and neighbouring Shellholes took on the necessary functions, and the Guest Speaker, Clr Norman McFarlane (military veteran and author) presented an enlightening and informative speech to the Gathering. The Caledonian Pipes and Drums provided the music and Emeritus Professor Chrisjan Cruywagen rendered the Last Post and Reveille in his usual professional manner. Wreaths and Floral Tributes were laid by the Shellholes, the Cape Western Provincial Dugout and invited Service Associations.

Moth Gail Jordaan – Old Bill - Bomb Alley

Moth Shaun Booth (Provincial Adjutant - elect)

Moth Peter Bolton leading the prayer service

Clr Clive Justus - Councillor

Guest speaker - Clr Norman McFarlane

Moth Leon Robertson - Provincial Old Bill

Moth Rob Harding – Bomb Alley on National Flag duty

Moth Hendrik Kruger – Pay Bill Bomb Alley - banner duty

Moth Francois Dempers – Sergeant Major -
Bomb Alley on Sentry Duty

Fanus Van Der Merwe & John Ferelo from the Canon Association of South Africa

Moth Kevin Vos (Propatria Shellhole)
Sentry Duty

Pine Pienaar from Koevoet

Johan Ferelo from the Canon Association of South Africa fires the canon at the 9th Annual War Commemoration Service.

The Caledonian Pipe Band

Members of Bomb Alley Shellhole

Commemoration at War Memorial

The Memorable Order of Tin Hats (Moth) Bomb Alley Shell Hole held its ninth Annual War Commemoration Service at the Bellville War Memorial at the Civic Centre in Bellville on Sunday 21 August.

The guest speaker was Norman McFarlane, a military veteran and author.

The Caledonian Pipe Band.

banner bearers of various organisations and units that attended the commemoration service.

Tyger Burger – 31 August 2022

Old Bill Jordaan and Bomb Alley Shellhole would like to take this opportunity to thank one and all for their contribution and assistance in making the Shellhole's annual War Commemoration Service another one to remember!

See you all again on 20 August 2023 for the 10th Annual commemoration parade.

oooOOOooo